THE FONTENAY

Hamburg

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

In 1816, Hamburg shipbroker John Fontenay acquired the unique property on the shores of Lake Alster, where THE FONTENAY hotel stands today. Lakeside Luxury in its most beautiful form. Timelessly modern - Modern Classic - is the credo of Hamburg star architect Jan Störmer. The hotel's innovative, sculptural design allows a fantastic view of the Alster from many of the 130 rooms and suites, as well as from the pool and spa area and the Michelin-starred Lakeside restaurant.
